BHBPA - Members Survey

We want to hear your views

You will have received our survey link yesterday.

We're conducting this survey in order to better understand the services we provide for our members, such as marketing via the newsletter, website and our networking events.

We're also collating responses to allow us to provide anonymised commentary to local authority organisations regarding various aspects of business activity in and around the Burgess Hill area. This will consolidate our standing as an important stakeholder in the local economy.

This survey will also further develop our understanding of what our members view as the purpose of the Association and the agendas we pursue.

A prize draw available

If you'd like to be included in the prize draw to win one year's membership (one winner per membership level) please fill in the answers to Q1 & Q2. If you'd prefer to remain anonymous, please feel free to leave these blank.

Complete at your own pace

Once you submit, you can save your answers and edit, up until the deadline date of 20th February 2026.

Work Experience

Please support your local school and help the next generation understand about skills needed in the workplace.

Our Year 10 students will be participating in a week of work experience between 18th and 22nd May 2026 and I am still looking to place approx. 50 students. We would be so grateful if you are able to support a student, ideally for the full week but any help that you are able to offer would be amazing.

In order to support a work placement, all you would need is Employers Liability Insurance and to have thought about the tasks that this young, inexperienced person will do together with what measures will be in place for their safety.

I have students wanting experience in a variety of settings so I really would appreciate your help. Businesses usually enjoy the experience and students will have the opportunity to learn some valuable skills and start to understand what is required in the workplace.

Digital Transformation That Actually Works

Cut Through the Noise: Practical Digital Transformation That Actually Works

Digital transformation is often framed as a dramatic overhaul. New systems, new processes, a complete reset. In reality, it is far more grounded than that. It is about improving how your organisation operates day to day by using technology more effectively.

Whether you are tracking performance, managing stock, supporting clients or coordinating teams, the aim is the same. Reduce friction. Save time. Make better decisions with less effort...

National Apprenticeship Week 2026

Developing talent, strengthening teams, shaping the future of our organisations

Next week marks National Apprenticeship Week 2026, a time to recognise the important role apprenticeships play in developing talent, strengthening our teams, and shaping the future of our organisations. I wanted to take a moment to highlight the growing value of apprenticeships and why they're becoming an increasingly powerful way for businesses to build capability, attract fresh talent, and support long-term growth.

Apprenticeships offer a practical, cost-effective route to developing people with the exact skills an organisation needs. Whether it's to strengthen early-career talent, upskill existing employees, or address skills gaps, apprenticeships provide structured development with real impact.

Key benefits to employers are:

- Access emerging talent with fresh ideas, energy, and new perspectives.
- Develop skills in-house, tailored to your business needs.
- Support succession planning and reduce long-term recruitment costs.
- Boost retention, as apprentices often grow with the organisation.
- Utilise available funding, such as the Apprenticeship Levy or government incentives, helping you invest in talent cost-effectively.

Across many industries, businesses are seeing strong returns from investing in apprenticeships—both in productivity and employee loyalty.

If you'd like to explore how apprenticeships could support your workforce strategy, I'd be happy to share more information or discuss potential opportunities.

The Sussex Sign Company Named First Metamark Approved Vehicle Wrapping Centre in Sussex

The Sussex Sign Company has become the first Metamark Approved Vehicle Wrapping Centre in Sussex, following a full technical inspection by Metamark UK, one of the UK's leading manufacturers of signmaking and vehicle wrapping media.

The accreditation confirms that The Sussex Sign Company meets Metamark's required standards for vehicle wrapping environments, installation processes, workmanship, and quality control, placing the business among a select group of manufacturer-approved wrapping centres nationwide.

The award was formally presented by Matthew Lewis, Regional Sales Manager at Metamark UK, following the successful completion of the approval process.

The technical inspection was carried out by Richard Collins, Global Senior Product Markets Development Manager, Automotive at Metamark. The assessment covered facility layout, workflow, surface preparation, application techniques, and the correct use of Metamark automotive films.

The Sussex Sign Company has worked with Metamark for more than 25 years, dating back to the installation of its first digital print equipment.

The long-standing partnership has supported the company's continued investment in premium materials, process improvement, and staff training as vehicle wrapping has evolved into a specialist discipline.

Speaking about the accreditation, Norman Mayhew, Managing Director of The Sussex Sign Company, said:

"This accreditation recognises the standards our vehicle wrapping team works to every day. Metamark approval provides an additional layer of assurance for our customers and reflects our long-term commitment to using high-quality materials installed correctly. It's an important step forward for us and reinforces the value of working closely with trusted manufacturing partners."

Metamark's automotive wrap films are widely specified for their colour consistency, conformability, and long-term performance. Manufacturer approval ensures that customers benefit not only from premium materials but from installation methods that align with product design and warranty expectations.

The accreditation marks a further development in the relationship between the two companies, strengthening technical collaboration while delivering improved confidence and outcomes for customers investing in vehicle branding and fleet graphics across Sussex and the South East.

The reality

Most organisations only think about compliance when something forces the issue: an audit, a tender, an insurer, or a customer questionnaire. By the time that happens, the pressure is already on.

A few uncomfortable truths

- Passing an audit does not mean you are secure
- Compliance achieved once will decay over time
- Most cyber incidents are caused by basic drift, not advanced attacks
- Documentation does not stop breaches — controls do

Why this keeps happening

- People join, leave, and change roles
- Devices are added, replaced, or taken home
- Cloud services and AI tools are adopted quietly
- Security settings are changed to "just make it work"

Why UK organisations are feeling it now

- Insurers are asking better questions and rejecting weak answers
- Supply chains expect evidence, not reassurance
- Public sector and regulated industries require ongoing assurance
- Regulators increasingly focus on sustained controls, not point-in-time checks

The shift that is starting to happen

Organisations are beginning to treat cyber compliance less like an event and more like an operating discipline — similar to finance, health & safety, or data protection.

The focus is moving from "Can we pass?" to "Can we prove where we stand right now?"

The takeaway

The organisations that will struggle most are not the ones that fail audits — they are the ones that only discover their weaknesses when it matters most.

Strong IT.
Stronger Business.

Pitch for Funding

Creative small enterprises from Brighton and across the SE are pitching for private equity funding and support to accelerate growth.

The pitch event has been organised by Create South East business support programme and is attended by enterprise investors and members of the UK Business Angels Association "UKBAA". The event brings together entrepreneurs in technology, digital design, health and education services. These early stage businesses seek professional advisory support and seed funding from £60,000 to £1 million.

Market research statistics from Beauhurst show nearly £2 Billion small enterprise equity investments in 2024, with 1600 early stage companies securing seed round equity funding in 2025. Key growth sectors are health technology, green tech sustainability and AI for process improvement. Mental health products and services have also grown over 30% for psychotherapy and counselling. However Companies House reports also show 768,000 companies closed in 2025, 80,000 more than in 2024, and £1200 had raised external financing for over £4 billion.

Sorcha Bridge showcasing unique design skills at the event

BHBPA member Clive Bonny from Strategic Management Partners attended the event offering advice on intellectual property protection and social value accreditation. Clive, previously voted Entrepreneur of the Year by Sussex Chamber of Commerce also offered his experience as an investor and long term UKBAA member. Clive says “whilst equity funding volumes remain high so does risk in the current economic climate. More companies need to ensure due diligence is conducted in advance of pitching for funds. Investors want to see intellectual property protection to protect market share, ESG credentials to win public tenders, and background checks on management teams.”

South East Water - Updates & Advice

Hosepipe restrictions have now been lifted.

We are pleased to inform you that the Temporary Use Ban (TUB) affecting customers across Kent and Sussex has now been lifted.

We would like to thank you for your patience and cooperation during this time. We appreciate that such restrictions impact daily operations and we are grateful for your support in protecting our local water resources.

Why are we lifting them now?

We are now in a position to lift these restrictions because water levels in our reservoirs and groundwater sources have returned to normal levels following the rainfall we received over winter.

While reservoirs can fill relatively quickly from river flows, our groundwater sources take much longer to recharge as water must filter deep into the underground aquifers. Following the record-breaking dry and hot weather last year, we took a cautious approach to ensure these vital resources had fully recovered before removing the restrictions.

What simple changes can BHBPA members make?

Although restrictions are lifted, the weather continues to have a massive impact on our water resources, and long-range forecasts remain uncertain for what the weather will bring later in the year. We encourage all businesses and non-households to continue using water wisely to conserve resources, help protect the environment and reduce operational costs.

Simple water-saving tips for businesses:

- Monitor Usage: Regularly check water meters to establish a "normal" baseline and quickly identify any unusual spikes that may indicate a leak.
- Fix Leaky Loos: A single leaking toilet can waste up to 400 litres of water a day; regularly check cisterns for silent leaks into the bowl.
- Upgrade Fixtures: Consider installing tap aerators, self-closing/sensor taps, or waterless urinals to significantly reduce water waste in washrooms.
- Staff Awareness: Engage employees by sharing water-saving tips and encouraging them to report drips or leaks immediately.
- Efficient Processes: Only run dishwashers or glasswashers with full loads and use "ECO" modes where available.

For more water-saving tips, have a look at our website here:

<https://www.business.southeastwater.co.uk/help/save-water-in-your-business/>

Education Sector: A specialist company is currently offering local schools free water-saving visits, which include leak repairs, device installations, and efficiency reporting.

The Shed

Burgess Hill's best kept secret

The Shed is Burgess Hill's best kept secret and one that we now want to share. We are a community charity workshop, that welcomes people who would like to make things and friends.

The Shed started humbly (operating out of a scout hut once a week), with the aim of bringing people together who may be feeling isolated or lonely, through redundancy, illness or loss, etc..

10 years on, we have a fantastic dedicated workshop, with a large range of high quality tools and equipment and a solid membership base. Soon, our building will need major repairs, which will take at least 6 months, maybe more.

We are therefore exploring alternative, temporary premises options, especially for our machine operations, such as wood working lathes, etc. If any readers are able to help out, please get in contact.: shed@bhshed.org.uk
